

MY PEER GROUP

The students you mix with are your Peer Group and are important players in your team.

It is vital for you to have clear and definite goals to aim for and personal rules to live by.

When you feel pressured by your Peer Group to do something:

- speak up if you don't want to do it
- have the confidence to believe in yourself
- see your family and teachers for support.

Having the Self Control and Self Discipline to:

- be yourself
- do what you want to do
- ignoring Peer Group pressure is essential to your success.
- sometimes you have to stand up on your own.

The challenge - it's your life, you direct it

- be in total control
- your friends will respect you for standing up for what you believe is right.

"It is always easier to fight with your principles than to live up to them." Anon.
